Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

The Horse and His Boy Chapter 5:

- ❖ What country or countries does Narnia remind you of in our world and why?
- ❖ How is the situation with the Narnian royals similar to Shasta and his companions'? How is it different?
- ❖ Shasta gains knowledge in this chapter that could be helpful to him and his companions. Discuss the continued helpfulness of coincidence on his journey.
- ❖ Is Shasta right not to trust the Narnian royals? Why or why not? Discuss the role of the fisherman, Shasta's "father", in his reaction to them.
- ❖ Compare and contrast Shasta and Corin. How are they similar and how are they different?
