Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

The Horse and His Boy Chapter 12:

- ❖ After Aslan leaves, there is water in his paw print, which is exactly what Shasta needs to see. How is this like God's interaction with us in our lives?
- ❖ Discuss what appeared to be luck and coincidence in the chapters before in light of Aslan's revelation in Chapter 11. How will this impact Shasta going forward?
- ❖ Do you think it is luck that Corin and Edmund came back just the morning before?
- ❖ Would Shasta have been better to tell the truth beforehand, or would that have prevented Narnia from being prepared?
- ❖ What do you make of Edmund not approving of a child in battle after his own adventures in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe?
