Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe Chapter 2:

- ❖ What would your reaction be if you ran into a faun like Mr. Tumnus?
What would you do if he asked you to tea?
- ❖ When Lucy hears Mr. Tumnus' original plan, she says "You won't, will you? Indeed, indeed you really mustn't." Does Lucy feel like she has to persuade him to let her go or does she genuinely believe he will ultimately do the right thing?
- ❖ Mr. Tumnus says he can't turn a human over to the White Witch after he's met Lucy because he now knows what human beings are like. Is there a time in your own life where getting to know someone helped you move past your prejudice?
- ❖ At the end of the chapter, it is clear from Mr. Tumnus' description that the White Witch's rule is one of fear. How do the events in Narnia mirror the ones going on in Lucy's world?
- ❖ Lucy is quick to forgive Mr. Tumnus. Does this have to do with her youth and innocence, or is Lucy simply a good person?
