The Magician's Nephew Chapter 14:

- ❖ All in Narnia hear Aslan's words to Digory, "Well done." Why make this statement so public?
- ❖ King Frank appears very changed for the better by his coronation. What rites or ceremonies of the church might we compare to his coronation?
- ❖ Is there an event in your life that led to a similar change in you as that experienced by King Frank?
- ❖ The animals try to show kindness to Andrew, but it keeps leading to folly. Is there a time where you have experienced something similar?
- ❖ When Aslan and Polly talk about Andrew's predicament, Aslan starts to show a great deal of familiarity with her, particularly in His response, "Do you think he wants to?". How does God show a similar familiarity with us?
- ❖ What are ways that we, as Aslan says, "cleverly defend ourselves against all that might do us good?"
- ❖ Why is it that the apple always does what it is supposed to, but leading to good if obtained the right way and evil if it is obtained the wrong way?

- ❖ What do Aslan's words "all get what they want; they do not always like it" mean? Do you think they are true? Why are why not?
- ❖ What do you think of Digory being ready to give up hope of saving his mother?"
- ❖ Why does Aslan choose to help Digory's mother?
