Prince Caspian Chapter 12:

- ❖ On seeing the old carvings on the walls in the Mound, carvings that would have been there after their reign over Narnia, Peter responds “That makes one think.” Discuss his comment.
- ❖ Discuss Trufflehunter’s comment that he stands by Aslan as well as his statement “Have patience”.
- ❖ Do you agree with Trumpkin’s thoughts that the rest of the troops shouldn’t know what they were specifically hoping for when the trumpet was blown? Why or why not?
- ❖ Nikabrik’s friends are the first to mention hatred and enemies. Discuss.
- ❖ Trufflehunter connects the calling of the ancient Kings and Queens with the calling of Aslan. Do you agree? Why or why not?
- ❖ What does it mean for Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy to be Aslan’s servants?
- ❖ Is it a coincidence that the creatures that do not speak fondly of Aslan were against Him in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe?
- ❖ Why do you think there are so few stories of Aslan after his resurrection?
- ❖ What do you make of the plan to resurrect the White Witch?

- ❖ Discuss Peter's words to Caspian: "I haven't come to take your place, you know, but to put you into it."
- ❖ What do you make of Trufflehunter's comment that beasts don't change? Is this a good quality? Is it at least good here?
- ❖ Discuss Caspian's comment that Nikabrik "had gone sour from long suffering and hating."
- ❖ Do you think Nikabrik could have become good in days of peace? Why or why not?
- ❖ Why is it a good thing that they don't know who killed Nikabrik?
- ❖ Why does Peter suggest giving Nikabrik's body back to his people?
- ❖ Should the hag and the werewolf also be returned to their people like Nikabrik? Why or why not?
