Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

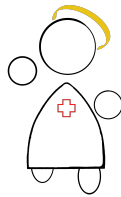

Prince Caspian Chapter 13:

- ❖ Discuss Aslan acting in “his own time, not ours.”
- ❖ What do you make of Peter trying to do something in the meantime while waiting for Aslan?
- ❖ Do you agree that Peter should issue the challenge to Miraz? Why or why not?
- ❖ Do you agree with Peter’s tactic of issuing a challenge to single combat? Why or why not?
- ❖ Discuss the “kind of greatness” that “hung about” Edmund after Aslan breathed on him.
- ❖ Discuss Miraz being “no very great captain.”
- ❖ Discuss Glozelle’s and Sopespian’s role in putting Miraz on the throne.
- ❖ Discuss Glozelle’s remark, “I believe my eyes, your Majesty.”
- ❖ Do you agree with Glozelle that the challenge should be refused? Why or why not?
- ❖ How do you think it is that the bear’s right of privilege has been remembered after all this time?
- ❖ Why does Peter care if there is anything that “might abate the edge of” Miraz’s “courage”?

- ❖ Edward says to Peter, “I suppose you can beat him?”, to which Peter responds “That’s what I’m fighting him to find out.” Discuss.
