Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

Prince Caspian Chapter 3:

- ❖ Peter claims that they won't be able to do the things they did in Narnia before because they are "just back at our proper ages again now". Do you agree that this is plausible?
- ❖ Why does it take Edmund, and by default the others, so long to figure out the time differential between Narnia and "the real world"?
- ❖ What do you make of the island containing Cair Paravel now being where prisoners are sent to?
- ❖ Do you think the dwarf is really "a dangerous criminal"? Why or why not?
- ❖ What do you make of the division between old and new Narnians?
