Prince Caspian Chapter 6:

- ❖ Discuss Caspian learning about the existence of both good and “horrible creatures out of the old stories” from Narnia.
- ❖ When Caspian asks if he believes in Aslan, Nikabrik states he’ll “believe in anyone or anything that’ll batter these cursed Telmarine barbarians to pieces or drive them out of Narnia.” Does that make him “agnostic”? Why or why not?
- ❖ Nikabrik states the White Witch was good to the dwarfs. How might this influence the dwarfs’ thoughts, in general, towards Caspian?
- ❖ Discuss Centaur Glenstorm’s call to arms, especially for a creature given to prophecy.
- ❖ What do you make of Trumpkin’s response, “What imaginations you Animals have”? Do you think he will be proved right or wrong?
- ❖ Why do the dwarfs seem to be so slow to believe?
- ❖ Why do you think the fauns are quick to accept Caspian, like Glenstorm was?
