Here are some questions to help get you started with your discussion.

Prince Caspian Chapter 8:

- ❖ What do you make of the time the trumpet was blown in Narnia being the same time the children were swept away from their own world?
- ❖ What do you make of the children still being “on call” for Narnia, even after their reign over the land is long over?
- ❖ Discuss how Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy appear in a form Caspian and the others did not at all expect.
- ❖ Do you agree with Trumpkin that Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy are less helpful because they are children? Why or why not?
- ❖ Edmund is quick to take Lucy’s advice. Compare that to how they interacted in The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe.
- ❖ What do you make of Edmund’s fencing bout to prove themselves to Trumpkin?
- ❖ What does it say about Trumpkin that in being proven wrong he is able to admit “talking like a fool”?
- ❖ Even though they are children, Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy possess knowledge that has long been lost to Narnia. Discuss this juxtaposition.
